

Convention Preparation: Resolution Writing Virtual Training

The importance of writing effective resolutions aimed at implementing meaningful change at PSAC Regional Convention is not to be overlooked!

If you would like to learn more about writing an effective resolution to make changes about the things you care about within PSAC, please consider registering for this training opportunity.

Please take note of the time zone where you live to ensure that you are able to join us at the correct time.

Once registrations are received, an email will be sent to those that have registered with the link to this virtual training session.

Course duration is approximately 2.5 hours.

Date: Tuesday January 17th

Time:

- 7:30 pm EST
- 6:30 pm CST
- 5:30 pm MST and YT

Should you require any additional information please contact Ian Brown, Regional Education Officer PSAC North.

browni@psac-afpc.com

To register follow this link: Convention Preparation : Resolution Writing

If this training event interests you, but you are unable to attend, please consider taking the online version of this training. PSAC's online and self-paced education platform can be accessed by following the link below.

PSAC Online Education

